The Science of Health!
Every Man his own Physician.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS
—AND—
Holloway's Ointment.

Disorders of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

The stomach is the great center which influences the health or disease of the system—abused or debilitated by excess—indigestion, offensive breath and physical prostration are the natural consequences. Allied to the brain, it is the source of headaches, mental depression, nervous complaints and unrefreshing sleep. The Liver becomes affected and generates bilious disorders, pains in the side, etc. The bowels sympathize by costiveness, diarrhœa and Dysentery. The principal action of these Pills is on the stomach and the liver, lungs, bowels and kidneys participate in their recuperative and regenerative operation.

Erysipelas and Salt Rheum

Are two of the most common and virulent disorders prevalent on this continent. To these the Ointment is especially antagonistic; its modus operandi is first to eradicate the venom and then complete the cure.

Bad Legs, Old Sores, and Ulcers.

Cases of many years' standing, that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment, have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful unguent.

Eruptions of the Skin,

Arising from a bad state of the blood, or chronic diseases, are eradicated and a clear and transparent surface regained by the restorative action of this Ointment. It surpasses many of the cosmetics and other toilet appliances in its power to dispel rashes and other disfigurements of the face.

Female Complaints,

Whether in the young or old, married or single at the dawn of Womanhood, or the turn of life, these tonic medicines display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible in the health of the patient. Being a purely vegetable preparation. They are a safe and reliable remedy for all classes of Females in every condition of health and station of life.

Piles and Fistula.

Every form and feature of these prevalent and stuborn diseases is eradicated locally and entirely by the use of this emolient; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healing qualities will be found to be thorough and invariable.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases: Bunions, burns, chapped hands, chilblains, fistula, gout, lumbago, mercurial eruptions, piles, rheumatism, ringworm, salt-rheum, scalds, skin diseases, swelled glands, sore legs, sore breasts, sore heads, sore throats, sores of all kinds, sprains, stiff joints, tetter, ulcers, venereal sores and wounds of all kinds.

CAUTION.—See that the words "Holloway, New York and London," appear as a watermark on every leaf of the book of directions which enfolds each box or pot. No others are genuine. A handsome reward given for information leading to the detection of counterfeiters of the medicines and venders of the deceptive articles, knowing them to be such. Sold at the manufactory, No. 80 Maiden Lane, and by druggists and medicine dealers throughout the world. A great saving by taking the large sizes. Full instructions with every box or pot.

No God.

"No God! No God!" The simplest flower
That on the wild is found,
Shrinks as it drinks its cup of dew,
And trembles at the sound;
"No God!"—astonished Echo cries
From out her cavern hoar,
And every wondering bird that flies
Reproves the Atheist's lore.

The solemn forest lifts its head,
The Almighty to proclaim,
The brooklet, on its crystal run,
Doth leap to grave his name,
How swells the deep and vengeful sea,
Along its billowy track,
The red Vesuvious opes his mouth
To hurl the falshood back.

The palm tree, with its princely crest,
The cocoa's leafy shade,
The bread-fruit bending to its load,
In yon fair island glade;
The winged seeds, that borne by winds
The roving sparrows feed,
The melon on the desert sands,
Coufute the scorner's creed.

"No God!" with indignation light
The fervent sun is stirred.
And the pale moon turns paler still
At such an impious word;
And from their burning thrones, the stars
Look down with angry eye,
That thus a worm of dust should mock
Eternal Majesty.

THE OFFICIAL ORGAN.—Speaking of the Imperialist as an administration organ, the Allentown, Pennsylvania, Democrat, says:

Knowing the effect of acknowledging the act that the Imperialist, the monarchical organ lately established in New York, is published by leading radicals high in Grant's favor, the petty polititions and little papers are denying it. The simple fact in regard to this matter is, the money to establish that paper, was furnished by Borie, of Philadelphia, one of the members of Grant's Cabinet—Secretary of the Navy. It is edited by men holding high official positions under Grant in Washington and New York; and one of the members of his staff is the managing editor. And more, this paper, the Imperialist, that is now advocating the entire abrogation of even the forms of Republican Government of an Emperor has within the past few weeks been recognized as the official organ of the "Grand Army of the Republic," a radical soldier organization, whose chief is John A. Logan, radical member of Congress from Illinois.

ANOTHER ALLY.—The Bulletin is opposed to the high tariff for protection. It says:

"The prescription has been taken exactly according to directions; but somehow the patient gets worse instead of recovering. Some of our leading industries have been ruined, and most are languishing. Heavily as we have taxed foreign products to keep them away, they are pouring in upon us in increased quantities. It is found that high duties in respect to a large class of articles, only add to the profits of the importer; neither he or the foreign producer pay the duties; they come out of the pockets of consumers, and are added to the burdens of our own people. Nor is this all. The enhanced cost of foreign goods is made a standard for the retail prices of home goods; and thus the people suffer doubly."

It is wonderful that people have tamely submitted to this protection folly so long. Even New England is beginning to cry out against it.

MEAN VENGANCE.—It seems that a young man has been turned out of a place in the mortar and pestle department of the Government because he chose to marry the innocent daughter of Mrs. Surratt. This shows a mean spirit of persecution on the part of the Government authorities not unlike that which would not only have burnt poor old John Rogers, but his wife and seven small children, "with one at the breast," at the stake, on account of the alleged heresy of the father. The American Government should be above such paltry meanness and worse than inquisitorial persecution.—New York Herald.

BRIGHAM YOUNG, in a late address in his tabernacle, delivered himself as follows: "A great many ask me how many wives I have; but, to tell the truth, I never thought enough about it to stop and think. But I will get up the facts in the case and tell everybody, so that they may stop asking me those questions. I suppose that I have a dozen or fifteen that I am taking care of; perhaps a few more I do not know, and I care nothing about it. I try to do good, and I try to save the people; and I say do not let a lady come to destruction."

GOT GOOSED.—At a recent meeting of strong-minded women and weak-backed men in New York, to agitate Woman's Suffrage, one of the latter, the Rev. Stephen C. Foster, made an attack upon the manner in which Miss Susan Anthony had kept the accounts of the Society, whereupon the tongney women of the crowd hissed him from the platform. They could't stand that Reverend,—the blessed geese.

A CUTE NOTICE.—A colored firm in Newark, New Jersey, having suffered some pecuniary embarrassments recently, closed the business and the senior member gave to the public the following notice: "De disholution of co-parsnips heretofore resisting twixt me and Moses Jones in de barber profession, am heretofo solved. Pussons who oes must pay de scriber. Dem what de firm oes must call on Jones, as de firm is insolved."

INDIGNANT.—General Butler was taking tea at the house of a lady friend in Washington the other day. The General seemed to look as if something was lacking, and the following dialogue took place: Hostess—"Can it be possible, General, that you have no spoon?" Butler rising indignantly and holding out both hands—"No, madam; if you don't believe it, you can search me."

A YANKEE lawyer who was pleading the cause of a little boy the other day in Boston, took him up in his arms and held him up to the jury, suffused in tears. This had great effect until the opposite lawyer asked the boy, "What makes you cry?" "He's pinching me, sir," said the boy.

The Fifteenth Amendment.

[The following article in support of the proposition that no State can be legally bound by a ratification by the other States of the Fifteenth Suffrage Amendment, because the subject matter was never any part of the Federal Constitution, is from the Old Guard, edited by C. Chauncey Burr, one of the most able political writers and clear-headed men in the world:]

Suppose the large States should propose to amend the Constitution in the matter of Senatorial representation, so as to allow but one Senator to each of the smaller States, thus stripping these States of the sovereigty which is absolutely reserved to them in the Constitutior, will any one contend that any State can be legally so divested of its rights without its own consent? Suppose three-quarters of the States should vote to so alter the Constitution as to compel every white man to take for a concubine a black woman, could any State which refused to ratify such a change in the organic law be legally and justly bound by it? No. And why? Because no State in becoming a member of the Federal compact, ever delegated to the Federal Government and three-fourths of the States jurisdiction over the subject matter involved in such a change. And no more did any State, in ratifying the Constitution, delegate to the Federal Government and three-fourths of the States over the subject matter involved in the so-called Fifteenth Amendment. It is new matter; and therefore it can bind no State not assenting to it. Long after the Constitution had been ratified by nine States, Rhode Island refused to ratify it, and it was not claimed that she was bound by any of its provisions until she did ratify it. And in relation to all new matter, that is, matter not delegated in the Constitution, each state stands in the same relation, or non-relation, to all the rest that it did before it ratified the Constitution. On all matters not delegated, each State stands as independent and complete in its sovereignty as it did before the Federal Government was formed. A State can no more be legally stripped of an atom of its undelegated powers by a bargain between Congress and three-fourths of the States, than it can by a bargain between France and England. This will not be denied by any respectable lawyer in America. The principle is perfectly plain everywhere. No act of legislation, or resolution of a legislative body, can be "amended" by attaching new matter to it. Every attempt to do so is always ruled out, as not being in order. And a constitution, which is a compact between co-equal sovereign communities, binds the parties to it on no matter not specified in the instrument. But the Constitution of the United States especially declares that: "The powers not delegated to the United States are reserved to the States respectively or to the people." These powers can be taken from the States neither by the Federal Congress nor by three-fourths of the States combined for that purpose. The consent of each State must be obtained before any of the undelegated powers can be lawfully exercised by any body but itself. They are as much a part of the State as the lungs or heart are parts of the human body. They are powers which cannot be surrendered by a State, without giving up its political being. Without these powers it would cease to be a State within the meaning of the Constitution of the United States, or within any meaning ever attached to the word States. The power of Congress and three-fourths of the States to take away these rights under the title of an amendment to the Constitution, or under any other title, would imply a power in three-fourths of the States to blot the other fourth out of existence without its consent. The right of regulating its own franchise is just as necessary to the political life of a State as the heart is to the life of the human body. On becoming a member of the Union, no State surrendered any fraction of this right. It is not in the instrument of Union, the Constitution, and cannot, therefore, be the subject of an amendment to the Constitution. An amendment of the Constitution, by which three-fourths of the States should annihilate all the vested rights of the people of the other fourth without their consent, would not be a greater absurdity than this proposition to strip the States of the right of controlling their own franchise under the title of an amendment to the Constitution. It is simply to overthrow the organic being of the States, and to invest the Federal Government with imperial powers. If it is competent for any number of States to wipe themselves out in this way, no one, surely, will contend that they have the right thus to annihilate other States against their own sovereign will. The Constitutions of most of the Northern States have provisions in relation to negroes, which this so-called amendment would violate—provisions which are older than the Federal Constitution, embracing matters that the States reserved to themselves when they formed the Constitution, and which can never be lawfully exercised by any other power except by their own free consent. It is not competent for three-fourths of the States to take it away from any State not consenting. Such a change would not be an amended Constitution, but it would be a new Constitution, and would be binding on no State which refused to adopt it.

THE Chicago papers are full of fun over the latest divorce case, e. g.: To Amanda—Amanda Craig, that gushing girl, may now dismiss her scholars, since she has won from poor old Sprague a hundred thousand dollars. To Elisha.—Elysha Sprague, yew bad old eg, Whoo kan't spel wurth a dern, yew terned yer back to Mandy Craig, and now yer munny's hern.

IN a recent case in Indiana, a Justice complacently remarked, in summing up the testimony: "Gentlemen of the Jury, in this case the council on both sides are unintelligible, the witnesses on both sides are incredible and the plaintiff and defendant are both such bad characters, that to me it is indifferent which way you give your verdict."

"How old are you?" asked a railroad conductor of a little girl, whom her mother was trying to pass on a half ticket. "I am nine at home but in the cars I am only six and a half."

A Romantic History.

In our account of the doings of the somewhat noted character, Sam Hilderbrand, and his desperate resistance while an attempt was being made to capture him by the Sheriff of Washington county and a large posse of men, by which one man was killed, and the Sheriff and several others were wounded, we of course took the statement of those who went down to assist in his capture.

With regard to the details of this affair, as given to us, they are doubtless substantially true; but regarding the history of Hilderbrand, and the motives which urged him to take the course he has, we felt sure there must be another side to the story. The facts as related by those cognizant of his history, show that he was driven to desperation by the injuries received from those claiming to be Union men, and that he has in a measure taken redress into his own hands, with a determination of avenging his wrongs.

At the outbreak of the war, in 1861, Sam Hilderbrand and his brother Frank, it seems, were accused of stealing from some citizens of St. Francois county. A band of men were organized who captured Frank Hilderbrand, took him out and hung him. They covered up the body in a ravine. Sam Hilderbrand suspected Firman McIlvaine, a mere youth, to have been the leader of the band who hung his brother. He determined to avenge his brother's death, and, discovering young McIlvaine at work in the harvest field, cradling wheat, he shot him dead. This occurred the same season that his brother was hung. Hilderbrand then abandoned his home and became a desperate leader on the Confederate side. His operations extended from the Arkansas line to St. Francois, and many persons were killed by him during the war. After his name became famous as a partisan leader, Gov. Fletcher offered a reward for his capture, on the charge of the murder of McIlvaine, and rewards were also offered by the citizens of St. Francois and Washington counties. A number of Hilderbrand's partisans united in offering the reward, to save themselves from being distrusted by the Union men, but he evaded capture. He boasted that with twenty feet the start in the bush, he would bid defiance to a regiment of men in pursuit.

About this time a German company, supposed to belong to Colonel Mueller's regiment, posted at Cadet Station, followed in pursuit of Hilderbrand, but the latter eluded them. They went to the residence of his mother, an old lady, located on Big river, eight miles from Blackwell station, and asked for Sam Hilderbrand; and not finding him, they ordered the old woman and her daughter to leave the premises. They then set fire to the house and shot a younger brother of Hilderbrand, a boy fourteen years old, by the name of Henry, who was ordered by his mother to stay behind and save what he could from destruction. The men then took what plunder they wanted, let down the fences, and drove the stock away with them. Hilderbrand has since the war made one of the citizens deliver up some of the cattle taken on that occasion. The party then went to La Grave lead mines, and captured Washington Hilderbrand and a man named Landusky, and, taking them out into a lane about one hundred yards from the shaft where they had been at work, shot them. Washington fell at the first fire, but Landusky was fired at five times before he fell. This occurred on Friday, and Landusky was to have been married to a sister of Hilderbrand (the same who was driven from the house with her mother) on Monday.

These circumstances embittered the heart of Hilderbrand, and he doubtless registered a vow to revenge what he considered a cold-blooded murder of his relatives.

At the close of the war he went to Texas, and returned to St. Francois county about a year ago, in poor circumstances. He gave out that he wanted to settle up his mother's estate, from which he expected some $300 or $400. Poverty drove him to engage in hard work. He chopped cordwood for a time at Rush Tower Bend, some thirty miles below St. Louis. One day he went to De Soto, and a friend who was with him asked Colonel Bill Fletcher if he would like to see Hilderbrand. The Colonel replied that he would shoot him at sight. Hilderbrand then tapped Fletcher on the shoulder and said he was the man. Fletcher, it is said, forgot his brave words, and promised to let Hilderbrand alone if the latter would do the same by him.

The following incident is related: Since the war Hilderbrand was shot through the leg by Jack Smith, and his wounds were dressed by a woman who afterwards married a man who squandered all her means. He then left his wife and lived with her negro servant in Arkansas. Hilderbrand, stung with resentment at the way in which the woman who attended him while sick was treated, went with a few men, and, tying the negress and the man together, flung them into the river. For this act Hilderbrand was sentenced to be hung. Before the time of execution, two hundred men, clothed in Federal uniform, went to the jailor and demanded that the prisoner be given to them. The jailor supposed that the object was to lynch him, instead of which they put him on a horse and he made his escape.

Hilderbrand is described as of tall, slender form, sharp features, red hair and gray eyes. He has a feminine voice, steps as light as an Indian, and can clear a seven rail fence at a bound, with the agility of a deer. Like Scott's Rob Roy McGregor, he possesses boldness, sagacity and prudence, qualities highly necessary in war, which become vices when misdirected. His father was a farmer in rather bad repute, and his mother died of grief after the massacre of her family.—Missouri Republican.

WHEN a wheat crop of 25 bushels is harvested from an acre there are removed 20 pounds phosphoric acid and 30 pounds of potash. If these are not restored by some form of manure, the field will not continue to produce 25 bushels to the acre.

THE following amusing bull was lately perpetrated at Briston. A magistrate asked a prisoner if he was married. "No," replied the man. "Then," rejoined his worship, amid peals of laughter, "it's a good thing for your wife."

WHOEVER would "mend the age" must "take a stitch in time."

REARING MULES. — An "Old Line Democratic Democrat," who is a Republican Attorney of this town, seems to entertain no exalted opinion of the talents of capacity of John Kelly, our candidate for the Assembly, and says "his whole life has been spent in agricultural pursuits and in rearing mules." Well, could a man be more honorably employed than in "agricultural pursuits?" And, if raising mules be an objection to a man, what should be thought of Scott, who has all his life been a stock-raiser. Kelly, at any time, will not suffer in comparison with Scott in point of brains. Scott's intellect is so sluggish that he has been a whole year in making up an opinion on Negro and Chinese suffrage, and even now "don't know!" Kelly has the reputation among those who served with him in the Legislature of being a prompt, active and sensible member. This much Scott has not—neither has he the experience of one session to qualify him. Kelly has this experience, and if the people of Yolo want their interests well attended to, they had better elect Kelly, who knows how. It takes Scott too long to form an opinion. The Legislature would have to wait on him, or dispense with his action. Scott is a good man—that's all. It will not be asserted, we hope, that Kelly is a bad one. We will lay a wager that Kelly can show better mules than Scott, better blood ed game-cocks, and beat him shooting with a rifle-gun at a target. Play or pay.

SORRY FOR DANIEL. — Of all the men on the Republican ticket, who are sure to be beaten, we have regrets for but one, and that is D. M. Burns, candidate for Assessor. He is really a deserving and meritorious young man, but his personal worth cannot overcome the unfaltering determination of the Democracy to make a clean sweep in September. These are times that try the very souls of men. The issue is made everywhere, from the St. Lawrence to the Pacific, of extending the right of suffrage to the degraded races, and thus corrupting our Anglo-Saxon manhood. Democrats, profoundly impressed with the idea of their superiority over both black and copper-colored humanity, and of maintaining the government on the white basis of their fathers, are resolved to spare no one! They have run up the flag of crape! Better retire from the contest, Daniel—go back to the plow, and let Ammons do the assessing.

SENATORIAL CONVENTION. — Day-after-to-morrow (Monday,) the Senatorial Convention, to nominate a candidate for the district composed of the counties of Solano and Yolo, will meet at Davisville. Dr. Curtis and William Minis, of this county, and Dr. McMahan, of Solano, are candidates for the nomination. Let the man be named, and turn the coursers loose. We have had terrific lightning bottled up for the Republican nominee. Haste with the work, or it will burst its confines.

TRUE TO HIS RACE. — A Portuguese applied to our District Court for a certificate of naturalization. Judge McKune took the matter under advisement because the applicant had negro blood in his veins. Some one asked him his politics, and he answered most energetically — "A Republican, sir." Would not the Negro Party be the more appropriate name for the Republicans.

A LIVE MEMBER OF CONGRESS. — J. R. McCormick, member of Congress from the Third District of Missouri, is now tarrying at Knight's Landing, in this county. He was accompanied to this State by Erastus Wells, member of Congress from the First District in that State. Mr. Wells is brother in-law to W. A. Henry, of this town.

CHICAGO MERCHANTS — These anti-American Abolitionists have employed 100 Chinamen, for the purpose of establishing an immense laundry at Chicago. They have also employed quite a number to supersede white girls in the hotels of that city.

GOOD FOR UNCLE SAM.—It is said that the Spanish General Lod z recently threatened to torture several of his prisoners, when our Minister, McMahon declared them all to be under the protection of the United States

WHEAT.—But little wheat was offering in San Francisco up to the 22d. Quotations $1 60@$1 70. Barley no change.

CUBA—The Cuban insurgents, 800 strong under Jordan, have been badly defeated, and Jordan badly wounded.

A Party Without a Platform.

A motion was made in the Republican Convention, on Monday last, by J. K. Smith, that candidates should define their political positions. This was changed to a pledge to support the nominees of the Convention, not one of which did so, consequently they stand pledged to no line of policy. This is in exact conformity to the course heretofore pursued by the Republican party of the Union. They wish to avoid committing themselves on the Negro and Chinese Suffrage Amendment, but, gentlemen, this dodge shall not avail you, as it did in the Presidential campaign. Then, you declared in your platform that the right of fixing the qualifications of voters belonged exclusively to the States, but soon as the election was over many of your party leaders boasted that the declaration was intended as a ruse, to deceive the people, and hardly had Congress assembled before they adopted the odious Fifteenth Amendment, taking away from the States, altogether, this vital, all-important attribute of sovereignty. People of Yolo county, will you suffer yourselves to be hoodwinked in this style? A resolution is adopted that candidates define their position, and after the nomination of each candidate by acclamation, they were not even called upon to declare themseves, and not so much as thank you, escaped the lips of any, except Scott, for Assembly. He did make a speech. Here it is, verbatim: "If you expect me to make a speech you are mistaken; but I thank you for the honor you have conferred on me." This was all the Republican candidate for the Assembly said. He knew, while he was uttering these words, that the people expected him to declare himself upon the Negro-Chinese question, but not a syllable did he vouchsafe them on the subject. If elected he will be required to vote for the ratification or rejection of this odious measure, but the people must be kept in the dark regarding his intentions. His opponent, Kelly, stands out in bold relief, opposed to the infamous proceeding. Scott, undoubtedly, favors the amendment, because the Republican party have staked their existence as a party upon it, but he is afraid to say so. If Scott can maintain his in. cog. until the election, all well—those opposed to transferring the political power of this State to Negroes and Chinamen, will be at no loss for whom to vote. All parliamentary rules were ignored by the Convention. Our friend, Nick. Wyckoff, assumed the responsibility of running it. He made one speech at the commencement, and repeated it often. That speech was after this wise: "Mr. President—We are all loyal men assembled here together. Mr. President, I am very much excited; Mr. President, I don't know what makes me so much excited; Mr. President, I believe I will sit down."

ANOTHER DOSE OF PESTILENCE. — Among the passengers on the steamer Japan, on Tuesday, were 112 Chinese women and girls, whose morals are the same as the great body of their class who have preceded them. Immediately upon their debarkation about 75 of them were huddled together in one corner of the deck like a flock of sheep, and a line drawn across to prevent the sterner sex from seeing them. They were subsequently marched up to five cars, chartered especially for the purpose of carrying them, and taken to the Globe Hotel, on Jackson street, fare 25 cents per head. While passing up the wharf to the cars, they gave unmistakable signs of their depravity. The rest of the women were taken to their destination in wagons, in many cases by persons who express great disgust at the race, and throw stones at them from behind fences, yet who are willing to be sandwiched between two ugly Celestial females, on the narrow seat of an express wagon for a paltry sum. Who are they consigned to?

The above we take from the news columns of the Sacramento Union. The interrogatory we will answer. They should have been consigned to the Republican State Central Committee. The Republicans, as a party, have framed a treaty to encourage the immigration of Chinamen among us, and have still further given encouragement by proposing to confer the right of suffrage upon the men, and they are in duty bound to care for the women. In the Southern States they inflict severe penalties upon hotel keepers, steamboat captains and railroad companies who refuse to let negroes mix in with white ladies and gentlemen, and soon as the Fifteenth Amendment is ratified it will be made a penal offence to object to Chinamen and their Cyprian wenches to do likewise. O, the supreme loveliness of Republicanism!

INEXPRESSIBLY PAINFUL. — The beautiful and accomplished daughter of Albert Pike, the poet, aged 18, came to her death in a singular manner one night last week. She was suffering from nervous head-ache, and sought relief in chloroform. It was supposed she accidentally spilled the contents on the bed-clothes and became stupefied, as she was found dead next morning, and the sheets saturated with the fluid.

INHARMONIOUS. — At the Radical Judicial District Convention, at Sacramento, on the 22d, three of the McKune delegates withdrew in high dudgeon. The Convention adjourned to meet on Monday next.

MORE WANTS. — A Rocky Mountain editor, alluding to the demand for female suffrage, female doctors and female clergymen, remarks that another want presents itself—that of female women.

OVERLAND.—Senator Hendricks, Congressmen Niblack and McDonald, of Indiana, and Congressman McNally, from Illinois, arrived at Sacramento on Thursday last.

DISLOYAL — The San Francisco Bulletin favors the election of Judges Sawyer and Crockett. Off with his head.

PASSAGE TO CHICAGO.—The price of fare to Chicago, on the emigrant train, is $50.

"DON'T KNOW HOW I STAND." — This, precisely, letter for letter, was the reply of the Republican candidate for the Assembly, a few days since, on the streets, several gentleman present, to the interrogatory, "How do you stand on the Negro-Chinese-Suffrage Amendment?" The gentleman asking the question told him that he was prompted by no improper motive—that he asked for information, so that he might not misrepresent him—but the answer was repeated with the addition: "It is too soon yet to express an opinion!" If elected, almost the first thing this Assemblyman will be called on to do will be to vote for or against the ratification of this amendment, which takes from the people of this State the most vital right they possess, and which will bring to California Chinamen to occupy every mile square of our territory, to the exclusion of progressive white men—and yet this model candidate, Scott, "don,t know how he stands!" If he is thus indecisive and slothful intellectually, he will never do for Assemblyman. But who believes that he has not yet made up his mind on this question? No one. But even for hesitating on a proposition to inflict so great a wrong on the State he deserves the severest condemnation of the people. No one is at a loss to know how our candidate for the Assembly, John M. Kelly stands. Upon every question, and for everybody, he has a decisive Yes or No. Between this "don't know" candidate, G. W. Scott, and his outspoken opponent, John M. Kelly, the voters of Yolo have to choose.

DECIDEDLY PARTIZAN — Capt. De Haven, of the Northern Enterprise, professes to publish a neutral paper, and up to his last issue has exhibited no partiality; but in that issue, in our opinion, he has manifested a strong partizan bias. Speaking of the Fifteenth Amendment, he says it "will be ratified before the California Legislature meets, and we may vote no or yes, the result will be the same." He says the ratification of only three more States are needed. This is a mistake, five more are wanted, and of those who have already ratified, three are charged as having ratified illegally, and will have to be decided upon by the Supreme Court. The vote of California is all important, even if the amendment was ratified by every other State. No State has ever delegated away the right to fix the qualifications of her voters, and until she does so, she cannot be bound by the so-called Fifteenth Amendment, even if ratified by the requisite number of States. The 10th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States is conclusive of this much. The contest in Butte county will be a close one, and there being no Democratic paper publis'ed there, we desire to keep our Democratic friends posted. Captain De Haven may not have intended it, but it looks very much as if he desired to make a partizan point.

BUTTE COUNTY REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS. The Republicans of Butte county made their nominations in convention, on the 13th instant. They nominated the strongest possible ticket, one which will be hard to beat. For Senator they nominated Geo. C. Perkins; for the Assembly, Charles L. Stinson. John Dick; for Sheriff, B. F. Allen. Perkins, Stilson and Allen, are men of intelligence, true worth, and decidedly popular. Two live in Chico, two in Oroville. The rest of the men on the ticket are good men, but too black for the sunshine of heaven, the rays of which they double and twist together. The vote in Butte county is a close one between the two parties, and in the same spirit in which the little girl told her mother, who was quarreling with another woman, to "call her a dirty trollope before she calls you one," we advise our Democratic friends to rule their opponents rigidly down to the suffrage amendment — call them Niggers and Chinamen before they can call you "rebels" and "traitors," and keep calling them so till the canvass closes.

CHICAGO MERCHANTS—Henry, of our town, who has just returned from Sacramento, tells a good story on two of the delegation of Chicago merchants, illustrative of the difference in ideas regarding money entertained between the people of the Atlantic and Pacific. He says two of them were standing in front of the Orleans, when one hunched the other with his elbow and they went in and called for drinks. One of them took out a leathern wallet and took therefrom a part of a newspaper in which was a roll of "shinplasters." He selected one of the denomination of twenty-five cents and laid it down to pay for the drinks. The bar-keeper told him he did not do business in that way—nothing but gold or silver passed as money in California, and more than that, he wanted fifty cents. The money was finally produced, and going out the merchant remarked: 'Extravagant country, this—we must get out of it soon as we can."

THE RESCUE.—We would advise Mills, of the Rescue, to drop either politics or temperance. The two will not mate together. If he desires to disrupt the organization of Good Templars, we assure him he has taken the very course to do so. The organization is made up of men of all parties, and for them to work together in harmony, it becomes absolutely necessary that their organ should ignore politics. We have no objections to Mills becoming a politician, but we do object to his using the organ of the Good Templars to that end. Politics and temperance will not mix well, unless it be with a class of men who think alike on both subjects.

PARTIAL TO THE TOWN.—Seven of the ten nominees on the Republican ticket were selected from the town of Woodland, while the exact reverse is the case with the Democratic ticket—three in the town and seven in the country.

UNDELEGATED POWERS.—The Constitution of the United States declares that: "The powers not delegated to the United States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people." It is not denied by any one that the power to fix and define the qualifications of voters is a reserved, undelegated power, because every State has always exercised this right. Therefore, it is plain as that two and one make three, that no State will be legally bound by the Fifteenth Suffrage Amendment, unless she herself assents to it, and it cannot be enforced upon her without a violation of the clause of the Constitution from which we quote. Notwithstanding this self-evident fact, some of our legal fraternity—Democrats, too—affect to believe that the ratification by three-fourths of the States would make the so-called suffrage amendment binding upon all. Some men clothe majorities with Omnipotent powers, to whose dictum minorities, regardless of the Constitution, must bend. Their ideas of Law and of Democracy were unknown equally to Blackstone and to Jefferson. We refer all such to the article on our first page, taken from the Old Guard.

DEATH OF A PRINTER. — The Marysville Appeal announces the death of J. F. Whitaker, one of the proprietors of that paper. Mr. Whitaker was noted by all who were acquainted with him for his honesty and his goodness of heart. He was a good printer—none better—and a good man. His last type has been set; his last proof corrected; he registered for the eternal city; put on a sub, and now lays off, taking his rest.

REFUSED TO PARTICIPATE. — Senator Casserley was invited by the Chicago merchants to participate in a banquet at the Lick House, San Francisco. When he was ushered into the reception room he found quite a number of Chinese merchants who had also been invited. He told the merchants that he declined eating with Chinamen, and left.

STATE MEETING — The annual meeting of the Christian Churches of this State will take place on the 17th of September next. The place selected for the meeting is one and a half miles west of Santa Rosa. Members of the church in that vicinity will leave nothing undone to make it a complete suc ess.

MEDICATION!

The great difficulty which physicians have been laboring for centuries to overcome, has at length been obviated. A Vegetable Cathartic and alterative more efficient than any mineral preparation of the same class, and as agreeable to the taste as ordinary candy, is now offered to the sick in the form of a Lozenge.

Dr. Erasmus Winslow's Liver and Stomach Lozenge is the most important medicinal novelty that modern chemistry has produced. It contains two botanical extracts, perfectly harmless in themselves, but embodying all the remedial properties of mercury, and destined in this pleasant form to supercede and banish from general use the nauseous pills and potions of which that dangerous excitant is the main ingredient. More than one thousand experiments were made by the inventor of this peerless remedy before it was brought to its present state of perfection. The Lozenge is harmless in its operation, and although the medicinal taste of its curative components has been extinguished by chemical art, their virtues remain as active and potent as ever.

In Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Constipation, sick or nervous Headache, Piles, Dropsy, and the irregularities to which the feebler sex are subject, the Lozenges will be found infinitely moee effective than any of the horrible and disgustiug compounds usually administered in such cases. As an anti-billious specific and general aperient, they have no equal either among advertised preparations or the prescriptions of the regular pharmacopœia.

☞ It is guaranteed that no one who has once tried Dr. Erasmus Winslow's Liver and Stomach Lozenge, will ever again take a purgative powder, or draught, or pill. jy24-1y

SHARES.....$250 EACH,

Payable in seventeen Monthly Installment.

Lands Immediately Adjoining the City Limits.

Title Perfect!

Payments to begin July, 1869, and to close November, 1870.

This Homestead addition to the City of Sacramento offers unrivaled inducements to all who desire to secure homes, as well as to those seeking to make investments in real estate. Shareholders who pay up in full may take possession of their lots under restrictions consistent with the interests of all Shareholders and an equitable distribution of the property. These restrictions are briefly: 1. Payment in full within six months from July 1st, 1869. 2. Not more than six lots in any one block shall be assigned; only two of which shall be corner lots, and only one corner and two inside lots on the same side of a block. This feature will secure the immediate settlement and rapid improvement of the lands, and a consequent enhancement of its value. The line of the Sacramento Valley and Western Pacific Railroads run through the plat, and an agreement and bond has been executed by the former Company to run trains on schedules of time equal to the accommodations afforded by street railroads. Thus by reason of being conveniently accessible, these lands are brought within the range (in value) of those more centrally located, and will find early occupancy. In every feature of this scheme the Homestead principle—which has been so prolific of good to citizens of moderate means, promoting the growth of our State and its cities and distributing the ownership of Realty among the many—has been carefully guarded. It may safely challenge comparison or competition.

Articles of Association, containing maps of plat, and showing its relation to the city, will be furnished upon application. Shares may be secured by forwarding the first installment of Ten Dollars to the Secretary, who will also furnish any desired information.

Among my customers there are some who have acted in such bad faith that I feel forced to call attention to them. A. G. & V. A. Whaley, W. R. Blevins, E. D. Beckett, A. Armsfield and L. Hickok, have, under the responsibilities of respectable residents and citizens of Woodland, run bills at my Butcher Shop, and afterwards, without one word of explanation or excuse, left without paying their bills.

These "shirks" and "confidence men" are the first among numerous others that my attention has been called to. The others will be attended to shortly; as I work for my means of supplying these fellows with "grub" and do not intend to let them enjoy it free, unless they do as other respectable men do—pay as they go.

TOWN AND COUNTY MATTERS.

DISTRICT COURT.—Court met on Monday last. Clerk ordered to draw thirty-six trial jurors to appear on Monday, September 13th. Cal. P. R. R. Co. vs. H. C Yerby et al—order made appointing as Commissioners to condemn railroad property and assess damages, George W. Scott, John M. Coghlan and H. Gwinn; Commissioners to meet at Court-room in Woodland, August 24th, and report Sept. 13th. Same Plaintifis vs. Jessee Clark and others—same order. People vs. Dennis Buckley, murder—arraigned and plead "not guilty." F. Bolton vs. Julia A. Bolton, for divorce—default of defendant entered and case referred to Clerk to take testimony. Jane C. Jones vs. Henry M. Jones, for divorce—same order. Eveland vs. Eveland, for divorce—same order. Thomas vs. Thomas, for divorce—same order. I. W. Jacobs vs. Rahm & Rahm—order transferring case to Sacramento, set aside. Wristen vs. Dawson—judgment entered as per stipulation. Natross vs. McNeil—dismissed at cost of plaintiff. Joseph Antone Fish, a native of Portugal, Application to become naturalized taken under advisement by Court, on the ground that the applicant is part negro and has not a sufficiency of white blood in his veins. Adjourned to Monday, September 13th.

SURVEYOR'S OFFICE.—We stepped into county surveyor Underhill's office, the other day, and found it the scene of as much industry, almost, as a bee hive. He has recently subdivided the townships 10 north, 1 and 2 west, being lands on each side of Cache creek, commencing as low down the valley as the old house of Wm. Gordon, and running up the canyon as high as Wash. Lambert's, and found him and his clerks busy copying the platts and field notes. We also saw there the outlines of an extensive map of the town of Woodland, perfectly drawn, ready for drafting. It has the section of every owner of real estate distinctly traced upon it, with the owner's name. This map will be a great convenience when finished. Surveyor Underhill has thus far discharged his duties well, and his re-election is a foregone conclusion.

CAL. P. R. R.—From J. N. Victor, freight agent, we learn many interesting items concerning this road. The bridge across Cache creek has been completed, and the cars will reach Knight's Landing in two weeks more. A coach car holding sixty persons is now running three times a day between this and Davisville, and passengers and freight increasing every day. The company shipped this week about one thousand tons of grain. They are expecting every day two new locomotives, from the East, one of which will operate between this and Davisville. Rolling stock is being built constantly at Vallejo. The road is doing a "smashing business." Every train from Sacramento goes out crowded. The company are fitting up a temporary office, on the western line of the track, and before the rainy season sets in will erect a large and commodious depot.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.—The Republicans of this county held their Convention on Monday last and nominated a full county ticket. They made selection of good men, against whom nothing can be said in point either of fitness or respectability. For the Assembly they nominated George Washington Scott; for Sheriff, George Washington Woodward; for District Attorney, R. P. Davidson; for Treasurer, O. B. Westcott; for Assessor, D. M. Burns; for Sup't. Public Schools, G. N. Freeman; for Public Administrator, A. C. Ruggles; for Supervisor Second District, J. R. Low. For Coroner, D. D. Hunter. These, Democrats of Yolo county, are the men who have entered the lists against you. Go you now to work and "make your own election sure," and let them return to their several avocations wiser men for the future.

DAVISVILLE CAST IN THE SHADE.—We take great pleasure in stating that our own dear village of Woodland now wears with becoming pride, the "belt" which a few short weeks since so gracefully encircled the loins of our sister village of Davisville. We cultivate muscle here as well as brains, and for the last two weeks have had daily exhibitions of the "manly art," and the most approved method of dealing "sockdoligers" in the "breadbasket," "upper and under cuts," and "snoot bruiser." As yet, through neglect, these exhibitions have been without license, but very shortly our town will be incorporated, and a very handsome revenue may be expected to accrue from this source.

MISS ANNA M. MORRISON. — This talented young lady, we are happy to announce, will shortly pay our town a visit, and will lecture upon entertaining subjects. We have conversed with those who have heard Miss Morrison, and they speak well of her. The press of the State also notice her in complimentary terms. Miss Morrison is of California growth, having been reared and educated in this State. It therefore becomes the duty of all to patronize and encourage native ability. The State that does not foster its own talent will always remain undistinguished in the arena of intellect. Miss Morrison is quite young—is very pretty—and extremely happy in her address.

LUMBER. — A large lumber business is destined to be transacted in Woodland. Our old friend, Peter Robertson, is disposing of large quantities daily. On Tuesday last he filled one bill of $1,500, and pocketed the money in the bargain. The demand has increased so rapidly that Powell, of Vallejo, will in a few days establish a new yard here, with Steele as agent. The facility with which lumber can now be had, and at a reduced price, will give an impetus to the building business, both in town and country. Houses are much in demand, and that demand will continue for a long time to come.

RUNAWAYS. — Two teams stampeded during the week, to the imminent hazard of the lives of children on the streets, and left their drivers to walk home. One became frightened at the starting out of the cars, and the other became still worse frightened on seeing the man who had it in charge step into the "Snug" to take a drink. It becomes a question, which team had best cause of alarm?

INSANITY.—James A. Douglas, acting as deputy sheriff, started for Stockton on Wednesday last in charge of a Chinaman found running wild in the woods near Buckeye, hopelessly insane. On the same day a strange white man, calling himself a prophet, and predicting the death of all whom he met, in a short time, and saying that he himself would die in an hour, was also arrested.

WHEAT SACKS.—Gray & Freeman have just received a large number of sacks, which they now sell at twelve cents, instead of thirteen, as heretofore. This reduction in price has been caused by holders of the article below, fearing they would have a large quantity left on their hands until next season.

RELIGIOUS DISCOURSE.—At the Christian Chapel in this place, to-morrow, Elder J. N. Pendegast will deliver a discourse upon the subject.—"The difference between Catholicism and Protestantism." Services begin at 11 A. M. All are invited to attend.

QUARTERLY MEETING.—The fourth and last quarterly meeting of the present conference year, of the M. E. Church, will commonce today at the church in this place, to be held over Sunday. The presiding elder, Rev. J. B. Hill, will be present. The public are invited.

GRAPES TO CHICAGO. — R. B. Blower, living near Woodland, one day this week shipped 12 boxes of grapes to Chicago, by way of experiment. If this proves that grapes can be transferred successfully, and sold at a profit in the Atlantic States, a big business will be opened to the vine-growers of California. A cargo of pears will also be shipped in a few days.

LEG BROKE.—On Wednesday last a valuable mule, belonging to Thomas Blockston, of Buckeye, became entangled in the harness at the depot, fell and broke his leg.

WHEAT.—This article has come in lively during the past week. Gray & Freeman shipped three hundred tons to San Francisco and sixty to Sacramento.

LOST — Somewhere on Main street, a crystal locket set in gold, containing a likeness. The finder will confer a favor by leaving it at this office.

DIVINE SERVICE will be performed in the Court House on to-morrow forenoon, commencing at half-past ten o'clock.

FLEISHMAN & KAUFMAN have on hand 75,000 grain sacks, English hand-sewed, which they offer at twelve cents. *

COUNTY COURT.—This Court adjourned on Saturday, 17th inst, to meet on Monday, 23d of August.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE TRUE MEDICAL DOCTRINE.—Nature, when struggling with disease, indicates unmistakeably the kind of assistance she requires. In case of nervous weakness and general debility, the feeble pulse, the lack-lustre eye, the attenuated frame, the flaccid muscles, the menancholly visage, inform us as plainly as if each organ had a tongue, that a medicated stimulant is needed. It does not require the aid of a medical education to understand this dumb appeal for new vigor, from an exhausted system. Every reader of these lines can comprehend it just as well as the graduate of a physicians' college. Let not this demand of enfeebled nature be neglected. Respond to it promptly by commencing a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a preparation uniting, in their highest excellence, the proprietors of a stimulant, an invigorant, and an alterative. Before three days have elapsed, from the taking of the first dose, a marked beneficial change will be manifest in the bodily and mental condition of the patient. The pulse will be stronger and more regular, the eye will begin to lose its dull expression, the muscular and nervous systems to recover their tension, and the spirits to improve. Persevere, and complete revivification of the depressed animal and mental powers is certain. In cases of dyspepsia and billiousness, the same salutary results will be obtained. The appetite will revive, the sallowness of the skin disappear, and all the distressing symptoms which accompany disorders of the stomach and liver, will rapidly subside. The cold of winter often intensifies these complaints by checking the prespiratory action, by which so much morbid matter is evaporated through the pores in milder weather, and therefore the Bitters are especially useful to the dyspeptic and billious at this season. jy1-3m

HOW IS YOUR LIVER?"—This is the exclamation put by Lord Byron into the mouth of Beppo's wife on meeting her bilious-looking lord after his return from captivity in a tropical clime. If the same question was propounded to every American to-day, three out of every five thus interrogated would probably admit that the important organ was "out of order." Why should this be, when it is notorious that a course of Drake's Plantation Bitters will impart perfect regularity to its action, and give it a healthy tone as certainly as the moon regulates the ebb and flow of the sea? Whenever the whites of the eyes betray a tinge of yellow, or there is pain in the right side or between the shoulders, or a general feeling of lassitude, languor and depression is experienced, be sure that the liver is affected, and commence taking this unequaled anti-bilious and tonic preparation. The billious invalid who follows this advice will soon be able to meet the question, "How is your liver?" with the cheerful response, "perfectly sound."

CHOLERA—HOW TO CURE IT.—At the commencement of the diarrhœa, which always proceeds an attack of the cholera, take a teaspoonful of the Pain Killer in sugar and water, (hot if convinent,) and then bathe freely the stomach and bowels with the Pain Killer clear. Should the diarrhœa or cramps continue, repeat the dose every fifteen or twenty minutes till the patient is relelved. In extreme cases, two or more teaspoonfuls may be given at a dose.

The Pain Killer, as an internal remedy, has no equal. In cases of Summer Complaint, Dyspepsia, Dysentery, Asthma, it cures in one night, by taking it internally, and bathing with it freely. Its action is like magic, when externally applied to bad Sores, Burns, Scalds, and Sprains. For Tooth ache, don't fail to try it. In short it is a Pain Killer.

The Pain Killer is sold by all dealers in Family Medicines. jy3-1m Business men, worn by care and sedentary habits, often suffer from constipation of the bowels, until the evil consequences of such a condition are realized in extreme debility, nervousness and prostration of the vital energies of the system; and it may be safely asserted that a majority of the female sex are little better than invalids, from the same cause; but by using Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, this natural aperient and tonic brings back the vigor and bouyancy of health.

An exchange says: "The surprising curative efficacy of Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, in a great variety of chronic diseases, especially those which prove obstinate, and incurable by ordinary treatment, cannot be explained. Nature, aided by art, has here provided a rare combination of medicinal properties, wisely adapted to the cure of diseases common to all mankind."

The effect of Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, even when taken for its cathartic properties, are very different from those of any other medicine prepared specially for that purpose.

There is no nausea or disturbance of the stomach, and instead of causing any sense of languor, or debility, it seems rather to invigorate the whole system, and excite the keenest appetite.

Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the ONE destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supersede all similar preparations. YOLO COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

Gone Before.

There's a beautiful face in the silent air,
  Which follows me ever and near,
With smiling eyes and amber hair,
With voiceless lips, yet with breath of prayer,
  That I feel but cannot hear.

The dimpled hand and ringlet of gold,
  Lie low in a marble sleep;
I stretch my hand for a clasp of old,
But the empty air is strangely cold,
  And my vigil alone I keep.

There's a sinless brow with a radiant crown,
  And a cross laid down in the dust;
There's a smile where never a shade comes now,
And tears no more from those dear eyes flow,
  So sweet in their innocent trust.

Ah, well! and summer is come again,
  Singing her same old songs;
But, oh! it sounds like a sob of pain,
As it floats in the sunshine and rain
  O'er the hearts of the world's great throng.

There's a beautiful region above the skies,
  And I long to reach its shore,
For I know I shall find my treasure there,
The laughing eyes and amber hair
  Of the loved one gone before.

A TRAVELLER in Pennsylvania asked the landlord if they had any cases of sunstroke in that town. "No, sir," said the landlord; "if a man gets drunk here, we say he is drunk, and never call it by any other name."

"WHAT! are you drunk again?" "No, my dear; not drunk, but a little slippery. The fact is, my dear, some scoundrel has been rubbing my boots till they are as smooth as a pane of glass."

A WESTERN farmer advertises a fugacious wife, who, he says, "has left him just as his summer's work is beginning, notwithstanding he had the expense of wintering her."

STIGGINS, a newly married friend, says that his wife is a perfect rose. The only drawback to his happiness is, he says, that she blows out perhaps a little too often.

"OH, I am so glad you like birds; which kind do you admire most?" Old gent—"Well, I think the turkey, with plenty of stuffing, is about as good as any."

DURING the recent trip of the Paymaster of the Kansas Pacific railway, thirteen buffaloes attempted to cross the track in front of the engine, and five of them were killed.

"I'LL always sing to please myself," said a gentleman, who was humming a tune in company. "Then you are not at all difficult to please," said a lady who sat near him.

MISS LEE advertises in a Mississippi paper that she is of good birth and education, and is willing to marry an editor, believing herself able to support a husband.

"CLEANLINESS is next to godliness"—that is the reason, my little dear, why you are put into the tub on Saturday night, before being taken to church on Sunday.

"FIGURES won't lie," is an old and homely expression, but few men can look on a fashionable woman's figure now-a-days and say as much.

"WON'T that boa constrictor bite me?" said a little urchin to a showman. "Oh! no, boy, he never bites, he swallers his whittles whole."

"BOB, said a factious farmer to his son, "we had a pretty hard day's work yesterday; now let's have a game of chopping wood."

AN eminent artist lately painted a snow storm so naturally that he caught cold by sitting too near it with his coat off.

AMBIGUOUS, the down-easter's inscription on his wife's tombstone: "Tears cannot restore, therefore do I weep."

CALIFORNIA has nearly a million and a half of dollars lying idle in its treasury.

—AT THE—

Paris Exposition, in 1867,

Also at the State Fairs of Pennsylvania, New Hampshire, New York and Illinois.

Also at every Fair since then (without exception) where the Weed Sewing Machine Company have really exhibited its strong points. The demand for it, everywhere, in all countries, is increasing faster than can be supplied.

Price, $65 to $500.

The beautiful $65 style most sold. All families that know the F. F., and are able, are exchanging their old ones to get it!

Second, the heavier "Weed" No. 2, for Boot and Shoe-fitters—price $65. Third, the wonderful New "Weed" No. 3, expressly for Tailors, Saddlers and Harness-makers. Powerful, roomy and Noiseless. No harness-maker or tailor can see this and buy any other. The largest manufacturies in both Europe and America are now very rapidly exchanging for it. Price, largest size, $110. We have other kinds of Sewing Machines, but advise to buy the "Weed" as most certainly the last and best. Address—

G. J. OVERSHINER,

CARRIAGE AND

WAGON

MANUFACTURER,

Main street, (opposite Gray & Freeman's,)

WOODLAND.

I would call the attention of the public to this well-known shop, where I manufacture to order and keep constantly on hand for sale

Carriages,
Buggies,
Sulkies,

CONCORD-STYLE THOROUGHBRACE

—AND—

LUMBER WAGONS,

—FROM THE—

BEST EASTERN MATERIAL,

Selected by myself!

All work manufactured at my shop is under my own immediate supervision, and up to the requirements of the times, of the latest style, and the most

APPROVED PATTERNS AND FINISH!

I employ no "foreman," for 30 years' experience in the trade—10 years in the Eastern States, 20 years on the Pacific coast, (including 9 years superintendence of the "Pioneer Carriage Shop," Sacramento,) justifies me in assuming that position. Delegating to none the supervision of my work, I am enabled to Guarantee Satisfaction!

My LARGE and SPACIOUS SHOPS enable me to store large quantities of material, and my

SEASONING FACILITIES,

(the only perfect seasoning apparatus on the coast) enable me to defy competition in quality of seasoned work. For verification of above, one has only to examine my facilities in this line, and compare them with those in other shops. I do not pursue the course adopted by many; on the contrary, I season stock before working, and do not put up green stock in wheels, leaving them to season afterwards. I have and keep on hand a large stock of

OAK and HICKORY SPOKES,

of all sizes and the finest material the market affords. Also a large variety of Elm and Locust Hubs.

Having given the Oak Hub a fair trial, I have become convinced that they are unfit for first-class work. Parties who may favor me with their patronage may be assured that

No green oak hubs will be found in my work!

In this connection I would call particular attention to my NEW STYLE LOCUST HUB, turned from my pattern, and imported expressly for this trade and Found only at my Shop!

Also made to order all kinds of

FARMING IMPLEMENTS!

Plows,
Harrows, &c

I have now on hand Harrows of all sizes, with STEEL TEETH, superior to the imported article. In short, I am prepared to fill all orders, from a Wheelbarrow to a Hornet's Nest.

The PAINTING and TRIMMING DEPARTMENT is equal to the best, and particular attention is paid to repairing and trimming old work.

BLACKSMITHING,

In all its branches, is connected with the wood-work, and both are under my supervision.

I have on hand, for sale,

Plow-beams and Handles,
Neckyokes,
Singletrees,
Stretchers,
Clevises,
Fifth-chains,
Lap-Rings,
Harrow-Teeth,
Etc., Etc.

All kinds of Plow and Wagon repairing done with neatness and dispatch. Determined to adhere to my long-established rule of manufacturing only the Best Work from the Best Stock, and having served my time at the two branches of carriage-work, (wood and iron) enables me to guarantee satisfaction in all cases, and to know, as foreman of my own shop, when work is WELL DONE.

To those who have heretofore dealt at other shops, and consequently are unacquainted with my work, I would say GIVE ME A CALL and examine my stock and work. Believing that the surest test of the value of my work can be had in the verdict of those who use it, I respectfully refer the public to

The following named Gentlemen

who have and now are using Wagons and Buggies of my manufacture: E. Giddings, J. Langenour, J. Aldrich, Mr. High, H. Rhoades, Mr. Taylor, J. Jones, L. B. Ruggles, Gray & Freeman, J. Garoutte, Fleishman & Kaufman, Ed. Moses, S. & M. Hyman, George Scott, Mr. Ludden, Mr. Olds, Mr. Lusk, Mr. Hurlbut, R. Fritz, J. Lane, Wm. Davidson, and a host of others whose names can be given if required ☞ Thankful for past patronage, I respectfully solicit a continuance of the favor.

G. J. OVERSHINER,
d19-1y Main street, Woodland.
